BACKGROUND

Quick Facts

- 10,452 KM Squared.
- 4+ Million Citizens
- 1.5+ Million Refugees
- Numerous Man-Made Disasters & Conflicts
- 8,000+ Registered NGOs

RESEARCH OBJECTIVES

Taking the Lebanese context in mind, this exploratory research aims at identifying:

1. Key competencies needed by individuals in a management or leadership position in NGOs.
2. Optimal design of the training program based on those competencies.

RESEARCH QUESTIONS

1. What competencies should individuals in managerial or leadership roles in NGOs in Lebanon have?
2. What are the best training methods needed to build the aforementioned competencies taking into consideration the Lebanese context?

RESEARCH METHODOLOGY

DEFINING AN NGO

A list of criteria has been identified that defines an NGO. An NGO:

1. is a legal entity founded by natural or legal persons.
2. not initiated nor managed by any government.
3. doesn't accept membership of governmental bodies.
4. works to fulfill community needs rather than profit, i.e. not for profit.
5. can be based on voluntary work, paid staff or both.

DEFINING COMPETENCY

According to Saville and Holdsworth Limited (SHL), competencies are about “how knowledge and skills are used in performance, and about how knowledge and skills are applied in the context of some particular set of job requirements.”

Competencies in this study will be put forth in 3 main categories:

1. Technical (Proposal Writing, Moderating Meetings, Using Software, Industry-specific Knowledge...etc.)
2. Soft Skills (Leadership, Negotiation, Communication, Team Building, Empathy...etc.)
3. Strategic & Organizational (Strategic Management, Systems Thinking, Project Management...etc.)

LITERATURE REVIEW FINDINGS

The literature review covered:

1. Books
2. Academic Journals
3. International and Local Training Programs
4. Universities' Degrees and Diplomas

All the topics covered in the literature review were in fields related to NGO Management and Leadership. 40 competencies under the 3 categories mentioned earlier were identified.
